

JLG Selections Win 35 Honors at 2014 ALA Youth Media Awards

JLG book selections are huge winners at this year's ALA Youth Media Awards. Again this year, our editorial team truly made us proud by choosing the John Newbery Medal Winner and all the Honor Books, the Caldecott Medal Winner and two Honor Books, the Michael L. Printz Award Winner, plus a plethora of others.

Just last week, Deborah Heiligman, author of The Boy Who Loved Math: The Improbable Life of Paul Erdős, said something that fully sums up what we do at Junior Library Guild:

“When a book is chosen by you at Jr. Library Guild it feels like fairy dust has been sprinkled on it.”

What a perfect way to describe the talents of our outstanding editorial team who give a book its very first honor by naming it a JLG selection. From there, the magic begins and awards follow.

In fact, books selected and honored by Junior Library Guild were given 35 awards this year including:

- The John Newbery Medal Winner and all four Newbery Medal Honor Books
- The Randolph Caldecott Medal Winner and two Caldecott Honor Books
- Two Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor Books
- The Robert F. Sibert Medal Award Winner and four Honor Books
- Two Winners of the Schneider Family Book Award
- Two Pura Belpré Award Honor Books for Illustration
- The Pura Belpré Award Winner for Text and one Honor Book
- The Michael L. Printz Award Winner
- The YALSA Award for Excellence in Nonfiction Winner and two Finalists
- One William C. Morris Award Finalist
- The Coretta Scott King Award Winner, Author, and two Honor Books
- The Coretta Scott King Award Winner, Illustrator, and one Honor Book
- The Coretta Scott King/John Steptoe New Talent Award Winner
- Two Stonewall Book Award Honor Books
- An Alex Award

Having these exceptional books in your library early is just one of the advantages JLG membership offers you. And now is a great time to order extra copies at low, JLG members-only prices. To order additional copies of still-available award winners, log in to your account at juniorlibraryguild.com or call customer service at 800.743.4070.
